The Rev. John Van Schaick, jr., pastor of the Church of Our Father, officiated at the ceremony, which was held at noon. Yesterday was the was given in marriage by her father, when it was brought from San An- tives of State societies ever held in and her only attendant was the ma- tonio last night for burial. tron of honor, Mrs. Richmond Clapperten, of New York City. The ceres mony was witnessesd by only the members of the immediate families.

The bride wore a traveling gown of blue taffeta and georgette, and a Bicture hat of blue and black velvet. She carried a shower bouquet of Bride roses and lilies of the valley. Her only ornament was a gold brooch ade from a gold button which had en on the wedding coat of the bride's maternal grandfather. Mrs. Clapperton, the matron of honor, was ningly gowned in old rose crepe de chine, and wore a corsage bouquet of sweet peas. Kenneth E. Mulford acted as ring bearer. The wedding march was played by the cousin of the bride, Mrs. Hugh E. Willis, of Virginia.
Immediately after the ceremony Mr.

and Mrs. Heider left for an extended northern trip. They will be at home after February 1, at 1904 Calvert -4-
